

Word on the Streets - July 2018

Monday 9th	The Rise of the Robots: Artificial Intelligence & Human Identity - London	LICC - London Institute for Contemporary Christianity Vere Street London W1G 0DQ	7:00pm - 9:00pm
	Artificial intelligence has been progressing rapidly, with new advances – and the ethical conundrums they raise – making headlines every week. What does it mean to be created in the image of God in a society in which intelligent machines play an increasing role? What are the potential benefits and risks, and how should the ethical issues they introduce be addressed? An evening with Professor John Wyatt to explore the theological and ethical challenges of robotics and AI in today's world.
	Building a Refugee-Welcoming Church: Manchester	St James & Emmanuel C of E Church 6 Barlow Moor Road Manchester M20 6TR	7:30pm - 9:30pm
	Welcome Churches and R2C2 are seeking to equip and resource the UK Church to welcome, support and include refugees and asylum seekers in our churches and our communities. With years of experience based in local churches and projects, we want to share what we have learnt and connect churches across the UK who share our heart and vision.
Tuesday 10th	"The War on Wonga" - Five Years On - London	St Paul's Hammersmith, Queen Caroline Street, London, W6 9PJ	7:30pm - 9:30pm
	Summer 2018 marks the 5th anniversary of Archbishop Justin Welby's challenge to the church to help promote affordable finance with credit unions - aka the "War on Wonga.". Join a stimulating and challenging evening of theology and practical challenge, as together we ask these questions: What social injustice caused that prophetic call? Where are we now in responding to this? What are the new challenges for the next 5 years in London, as together we seek a fairer financial system for all?
Thursday 12th	Social Reformers Summer School - Cambridge	Westminster College, Cambridge CB3 0AA	5:00pm -
	Over the centuries Christians have cared for the broken and outcast, challenged corruption, and established initiatives to move society closer to God's intentions and ideals. The Social Reformers Summer School run by Jubilee Centre lays the foundations for social transformation and helps you develop strategies for engagement in your own context and calling.

	The future is an urban multicultural society and the call of the church is to intentionally and actively minister into it. We need to set aside people willing to go to communities where few are going, willing to begin to understand a different culture, longing to share the gospel and disciple new believers. Maybe God is calling you to explore what this means for you and your church?
